Questions

Please answer the following questions in English. (Please do not copy text but rather answer in your own words; your answers should be between 40 and 60 words in length.)

9. What are some of the consequences of the worldwide popularity of food coming from developing countries?

The text says that the money made from growing products in developing countries is not distributed evenly and that there is a chance that developing countries will be exploited, which might have a negative effect on biodiversity.

10. What factors can determine the popularity of a certain food? Please include at least two (2) in your answer.

The text names three: pretty pictures on Instagram, advertising campaigns with celebrities, and the allure of eating something that is a traditional food in an exotic place. The answer should include two of these; 50% is given for each part.

In grading questions 9 and 10, grammar and vocabulary are much more important than preciseness of content, although the answers should address the questions.
